ALL ABOARD As Susan appears as Speaker on Carnival Cruise Ship to Women Connecting Internationally (Winclub)!

DATE: Dec. 08, 2004

The Triangle, NC - Dec 08, 2004- Susan joins forces with businesswomen from around the world and shared ideas with other entrepreneurs and their families. The journey began from New Orleans on the well know Carnival Cruise Lines.

Her topic, on Image Management "Cosmos & Image" and presentation was "well done" and the women enjoyed it thoroughly. With her school of excellence, at Golden Production Services Inc., a specialty, corporate training, which promotes long-term learning for professionals at all levels of the corporate ladder. This includes sales professionals, managers and top executives wishing to enhance their skill set, young executives with aspirations for advancement, people seeking international positions and men and women wishing to improve their personal and professional image. Recognizing the value of people to the overall organization, Golden Production Services delivers a customized, comprehensive image management coaching and training support system to meet your needs.

Coaching and training can be delivered in small informal groups or in formal group training sessions. The company offers ongoing training out of your environment on a cruise ship, at a resort and we can plan your whole event with our other offerings. Recognizing the missing links that are required to be successful, we bring in our speakers and trainers to customize your training event. Participants will learn new concepts to be more creative in their field, and to broaden their knowledge about globalization, intercultural management, and business principles.

Visiting 3 countries, Cozumel, Grand Cayman Islands and Jamaica in seven days was a nice setting than the office environment. The women connected from countries such as Canada, USA, Yugoslavia, South Africa, and France & Italy. It was a great experience to be introduced to new cultures, meet new people and attend innovative seminars at sea. Off the shore, Susan especially enjoyed swimming with the dolphins in Cozumel.
