Booth #1845

Susan Thompson, International TV Personality, interviews International Celebrities from the world of film, fashion, TV and sports

The Susan Thompson Show and Golden Production Inc. represents the essence of television lifestyle viewing. The Susan Thompson Show (thesusanthompsonshow.com) and The North American Andy Transplant Foundation, Inc. (andytransplantfoundation.org) are being showcased at the 2007 NATPE Convention in Las Vegas.

The Susan Thompson Show is the flagship broadcast show produced by Golden Production, Inc. Susan began her career as an international professional model, has authored two books, wrote and produced a song with Sonny E. of Earth, Wind and Fire and founded the North American Andy Transplant Foundation, Inc., a 501c3 corporation whose mission is to change lives by creating awareness, providing financial assistance to recipients and families, and changing the way the healthcare system deals with timely treatment and care of transplant patients so no one has to die.

Susan's television audience is style conscious, is eclectically spirited and appreciates the finer things in life acquired through hard work, ambition and talent. Susan is broadcasted on satellite, cable and the World Wide Web in 51 countries in Europe, reaching an audience of 150,000,000 in the US, Canada and worldwide. Her affiliates include Cool TV of Denver and Berlin, Germany - a Pan-European TV Network and GoodNewsBroadcast.com, headquartered in NYC.

Susan recently returned from the red carpet in London where she covered the World Music Awards. She had a privileged position on the red carpet and interviewed several icons in the pop music world and who include singer Katie Melua who performed a duet with Andrea Bocelli.

Susan is going to the Hamptons in February and will sit on the other side of the microphone to interview with Ingrid Lemme, the hostess and creator of American Dream Show, (WVH) broadcasting from Gurney's Inn world-class resort and spa. Ingrid's interview takes an in depth look at Susan life, interests and family. Her showcase of extraordinary individuals will also include our good friend, Punchin' Pat Nwamu, our primary Foundation sponsor for the 2007 NATPE booth.

Pat makes his debut at NATPE this year. The World Cruiser Weight Boxing Champion, Patrick "Punchin' Pat" Nwamu, a/k/a the New York City Kid, won his title in August 2006 at Madison Square Garden and was exclusively telecast on HBO Sports. Punchin' Pat also released his movie in 2006, "They're Just My Friends" in locations nationwide. He wrote the screenplay, produced the film and also starred in the lead role. The film is based on a true story. Pat is also featured in Shakira's new video, "Illegal".

The North American Andy Transplant Foundation is Susan's heart and soul. Created after her brother Andy passed away, Susan is committed to saving lives through educating the public and making a difference tandemly with her show. Her booth featuring the Andy Foundation is resplendent with a "Tree of Life" - a white spiral tree garnished in white lights. Susan received original fine art from renowned artists in the Hamptons and her hometown in North Carolina. A $25 donation places your name on the tree of life enters you in a raffle drawing at the close of the show.

Susan was recently promoted to VIP with the Metropolitan Who's Who Registry of distinguished individuals and ballots for nomination into this prestigious Registry are available only at Susan's NATPE booth.

Susan will be featured in the February issue of Las Vegas Hollywood Magazine along side David Stern, the Commissioner of the NBA.
