THE SUSAN THOMPSON SHOW COVERS THE CAMDEN HOUSE GRAND OPENING the day after the G R A M M Y ' S !

Susan of The Susan Thompson Show interviewed guests as they arrived onto THE RED CARPET at The Camden House, Beverly Hills newest restaurant, bar and wine club. The lineup was incredible.

A grand reception was hosted by Shaun Toub from CRASH with the screenwriter/producer of Million Dollar Baby, currently up for six Oscar nominations; Sean Kanan, currently daytime Emmy nominated; actress Holly Bonelli; Gary Michael Walters of Bold Films, producing BOBBY, directed by Emilio Estevez with a cast including Christian Slater, Sharon Stone, William H. Macy, Demi Moore, Anthony Hopkins, Lyndsey Lohan, Elijah Wood, Lawrence Fishburne, Helen Hunt, Heather Graham and Svetlana Metkina.

George Besson, formerly owner of the mythical Bar One, is opening the Camden House.

Exclusive aspects of The Camden House include private wine club, private screening room, another screen that comes out of the ceiling in the main room, committee-based membership that controls access to the most desirable areas and times of the lounge, ambience, live music, dancing and a certain je ne sais quoi especially appealing for entertainment industry power lunches as much as evening rendezvous.

Additional members of the Grand Opening's Official Host Committee include Joshua LeBar from HBO's ENTOURAGE; Robert Bagnell of Showtime's THE COMEBACK; Cassandra Mann of the Alfred Mann Foundation; Leena Holland the teenage fashion icon; Jojo Holland from MTV's NEXT; Carlos Carreras of UTA; Jack Gilardi of ICM; Yana K the L.A. runway designer; D.B. Sweeney from THE CUTTING EDGE and just back from Sundance with his film DIRT NAP; Christina Martin of EQUITY; and DJ Ted Stryker from KROQ 106.7.

Taking place the day after the Grammys, The Camden House Grand Opening is being covered by Music Plus Television, whose mandate to focus on the music, follow their ears and bring artists and fans together...reminds us of what MTV used to be. Recording artists expected to attend the Grand Opening include Fall Out Boy, Stereo Suite, Venice Maki, Hodges Taylor, DJ Efen Ramirez as well as artists and executives from North Star Media. The Camden House walls feature paintings by Daniel Maltzman.

Benefiting Angel Food Charity, the event is also affiliated with Mindfire Entertainment, I.D. Talent and Tomorrow's Horizons production company, whose credits to date include HACK! and CARPOOL GUY.

Apart from The Susan Thompson Show, other press coverage included Entertainment Tonight, The Insider, Hollywood Life Magazine, US Magazine, Forbes, People Magazine, Variety, TV Guide, Hollywood Reporter, GQ, Good Morning America, Music Connection, Nikkei Entertainment, The Beauty Channel and more.

The Susan Thompson Show is a magazine show that is broadcasted to more than 119 million households in 51 countries via the Skyline satellite television network. The show is syndicated in the USA on a major network. It is also set to appear in the US on the National Barber Shop Network starting in 2006. The Susan Thompson Show is also going wireless.

By interviewing noted personalities from the entertainment, business, and humanitarian fields, the show uses a magazine show format to explore issues, causes, and events affecting its viewers.
