INTERNATIONAL TV PERSONALITY SUSAN THOMPSON ROCKS ON THE RED CARPET IN THE UK

This year London had the honor of hosting The World Music Awards extravaganza in its 18th year. The awards were broadcasted in 160 countries to over 1 billion viewers from Earls Court, Nov. 15th, 2006.

Susan Thompson, International TV Personality, of The Susan Thompson Show interviewed international celebrities from the world of film, fashion, TV and sports. Lindsay Lohan hosted the show hot from her recent success as MC of Saturday Night Live on NBC Network. Beyonce opened the show with a performance from Déjà Vu. Mary J Blige received a legend award for her Outstanding Contribution to R & B Music and performed a medley of her greatest hits.

Michael Jackson made his first public appearance in 9 years at The World Music Awards. The Diamond Award was created to honor artists who have sold over 100 million albums. It is an award that is only for music royalty and was presented to him. Past recipients of the Diamond Award include Rod Stewart, Mariah Carey, Bon Jovi and Celine Dion.

Susan also had representation from one of her affiliate partner, Port City International Model and Talent Agency, where she is their International Spokesperson and TV Personality. Thompson smiled as she was part of this fantastic event with the highest quality of music entertainment in the world.

Some of the interviews with Susan included Katie Melua, best selling European female artist of the year who also performed with the classical phenomenon entertainer, Andrea Bocelli.
